Connect & Grow Your Network

As your local chamber, the Wayzata West Metro Chamber offers a variety of programs and events all year long to help grow your professional network and get in front of potential customers.

Series

Morning MemberNet | Wayzata American Legion | Monthly - Third Tuesday

Enjoy light breakfast fare and start your day strong by meeting other movers and shakers in the Chamber. There is an opportunity for one or two members to promote their businesses at these events.

Leadership Luncheon | Wayzata Country Club | Monthly January-May.

These must-attend programs feature influential leaders throughout our region and state. This series is designed to take up timely topics and impart insights into what makes Minnesota tick, along with discovering something new that impacts your business and community.

EmpowHER Women's Network Luncheon | Atria Corporate Center, Plymouth | Quarterly

This Network of business leaders creates a supportive, empowering space for women to connect and participate in peer-led mentorship, to drive success and growth within the community and beyond.

Minnetonka Business Network | Hosted at a Variety of Minnetonka Businesses | Quarterly

In partnership with the City of Minnetonka, this program strengthens connections between Minnetonka business leaders and the City to support a thriving business community. Attendees will gain insights from City officials and gain valuable information on business resources.

Wayzata Business Council | Location & Dates Vary

The Chamber is pleased to partner with the City of Wayzata to offer this program to our Wayzata-based business professionals. The purpose is to strengthen ties between Wayzata-based business leaders and the City to foster a vibrant business community. Attendees will receive City updates and gain timely information on issues impacting them.

Signature Events

Roger Miller Golf Classic in June

Whether you're a competitive golfer, casual player, or new to golf, spend the day on the course while networking with others.

Annual Member Appreciation Picnic in July

Be our guest as we celebrate our members and all that makes the Wayzata West Metro Chamber and our communities so strong.

Person of the Year (POTY) Luncheon in October

The Chamber celebrates an individual who is an active participant and supporter of Chamber activities and who contributes to the economic, civic, commercial, and educational interests of the west metro area.

Connect & Grow Your Network

Eat, Drink & Be Merry in November

Premier Sponsor, Sears Imported Autos, will offer a delicious hors d'oeuvres buffet, beverages, holiday shopping, and live music!

Annual Holiday Celebration

Celebrate the holiday season, salute our Chamber Stars, welcome new board leadership, recap the year's milestones, and enjoy a toast to the year to come!

Get Involved

New Member Orientations | Locations Vary | Two-Three Times Yearly

This program is geared towards new members of the chamber, newer employees of a current member, or members who want a refresher. Join Chamber staff and member leaders at a member business to learn more about ways to engage in programs, events, and festivals throughout the year. This will also be a great networking experience for everyone and an opportunity to meet other new members.

Welcome Visits & Ribbon Cutting Celebrations

Join us at a ribbon cutting and be part of welcoming qualifying businesses to the Wayzata West Metro Chamber community! This includes new businesses, remodels, and new ownership. Ribbon cuttings are held typically on Tuesdays at 4pm and are a great opportunity to connect with fellow members while showing support for local businesses as they celebrate exciting milestones.

There's something for everyone. View our Event Calendar here!

“Chamber's events have not only continued to thrive but have grown in both scale and attendance year after year—bringing people together, strengthening local businesses, and showcasing the best of what Wayzata has to offer.”
